

THE PRINCESSES
AND THE PEA

*It is well known that when princess cries, her crown flies.
A princess is so sweet and tender that even a pirate could lose his temper. There is not a greater art than stealing a Princess heart.*

In this adaptation of the popular Hans Christian Andersen tale, characters will come to life in a puppet workshop.

Amira, the daughter of King Mustafa from Arabia, decides to run away when her father is about to marry her with a sultan she hasn't even met. At the same time, Queen Violant tries to find a Princess for his son Arnau, who doesn't want to get married either. Destiny will make Princess Amira and Prince Arnau meet.

A puppet show with live music for all audiences for children 3 year old and up, that will take the spectators to an imaginary, adventurous and fantastic world.
